God's Will

We're often looking for God's will, especially when we're in a difficult situation. We wonder, what will happen to me from here? Should I stay or does God want me somewhere else? The only way to know for sure is to do what He asks you to do right now, the duty of the present moment, and wait for God to reveal the next step.

As you obey what you know, you will be strengthened to take the next step and the next. Step by step, one step at a time. That's how we learn to walk with God.

But you say, "suppose I take the first step. What will happen next?" That's God's business. Your task and mine is to obey this day and leave the future to Him. The psalmist says our steps are "ordered by the Lord." This day's direction is all we need. Tomorrow's instruction is of no use to us at all. George MacDonald said, "We do not understand the next page of God's lesson book; we see only the one before us. Nor shall we be allowed to turn the leaf until we have learned the it's lesson."

If we concern ourselves with God's will and obey each day the directions and warnings He gives, if we walk by faith and step out in the path of obedience, we will find that God will lead us through this day. As Jesus put it. "Tomorrow will worry about it's own things" (Matthew 6:34).

Psalm-37:23-27 <sup>23</sup>The Lord makes firm the steps of the one who delights in him; <sup>24</sup>though he may stumble, he will not fall, for the Lord upholds him with his hand.

<sup>25</sup>I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread. <sup>26</sup>They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be a blessing.

<sup>27</sup>Turn from evil and do good; then you will dwell in the land forever. (NIV)
