A Walk In The Park

Our House in Boise, Idaho, backs on to a park with a walking track. You can see most of the path from our kitchen window, and because of that I've learned to recognize people by their walk.

There's a lawyer from down the street who's always in a hurry, an elderly man who trudges slowly by, a woman who strides with purposeful steps. Each has a characteristic gait.

The bible instructs us: "Walk in love, as Christ has loved us" (Ephesians 5:2) and "Walk in wisdom" (Colossians 4:5). I ask myself. "Does my walk reflect God's love and wisdom?" Am I "pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy"? (James 3:17). Do I have love, joy, and peace? Am I tranquil and strong? What do others see as I walk by?

Set yourselves to do the will of the Master. Walking in His will makes a big difference to those whose lives you influence. Is your life making a difference in the lives around you? Do others see Jesus in what you say and do? For a Christ-like walk, keep in step with Jesus.

Ephesians 5:2 ² Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. He loved us and offered himself as a sacrifice for us, a pleasing aroma to God. (NLT)
